The Colonist Anaheim, California 1951

DEDICATION

This book is dedicated to those young men and women who have gone, or soon will go, into the service of their country. They go, that in days to come, others may attend a free Anaheim Union High School.

Well, it's about time!

I've been around this school for 51 years now and this is the first time I've been seen.....

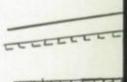

I'm the SPIRIT OF AUHS. I attend all the dances, games and assemblies. I even get to a few tests. Remember the one you thought you'd flunk, but didn't? Well?

Just as soon as this cartoonist gets my foot finished, I'm going to take you on a guided tour of the campus . . . back through the familiar hallways. . . . back through the events of last year.

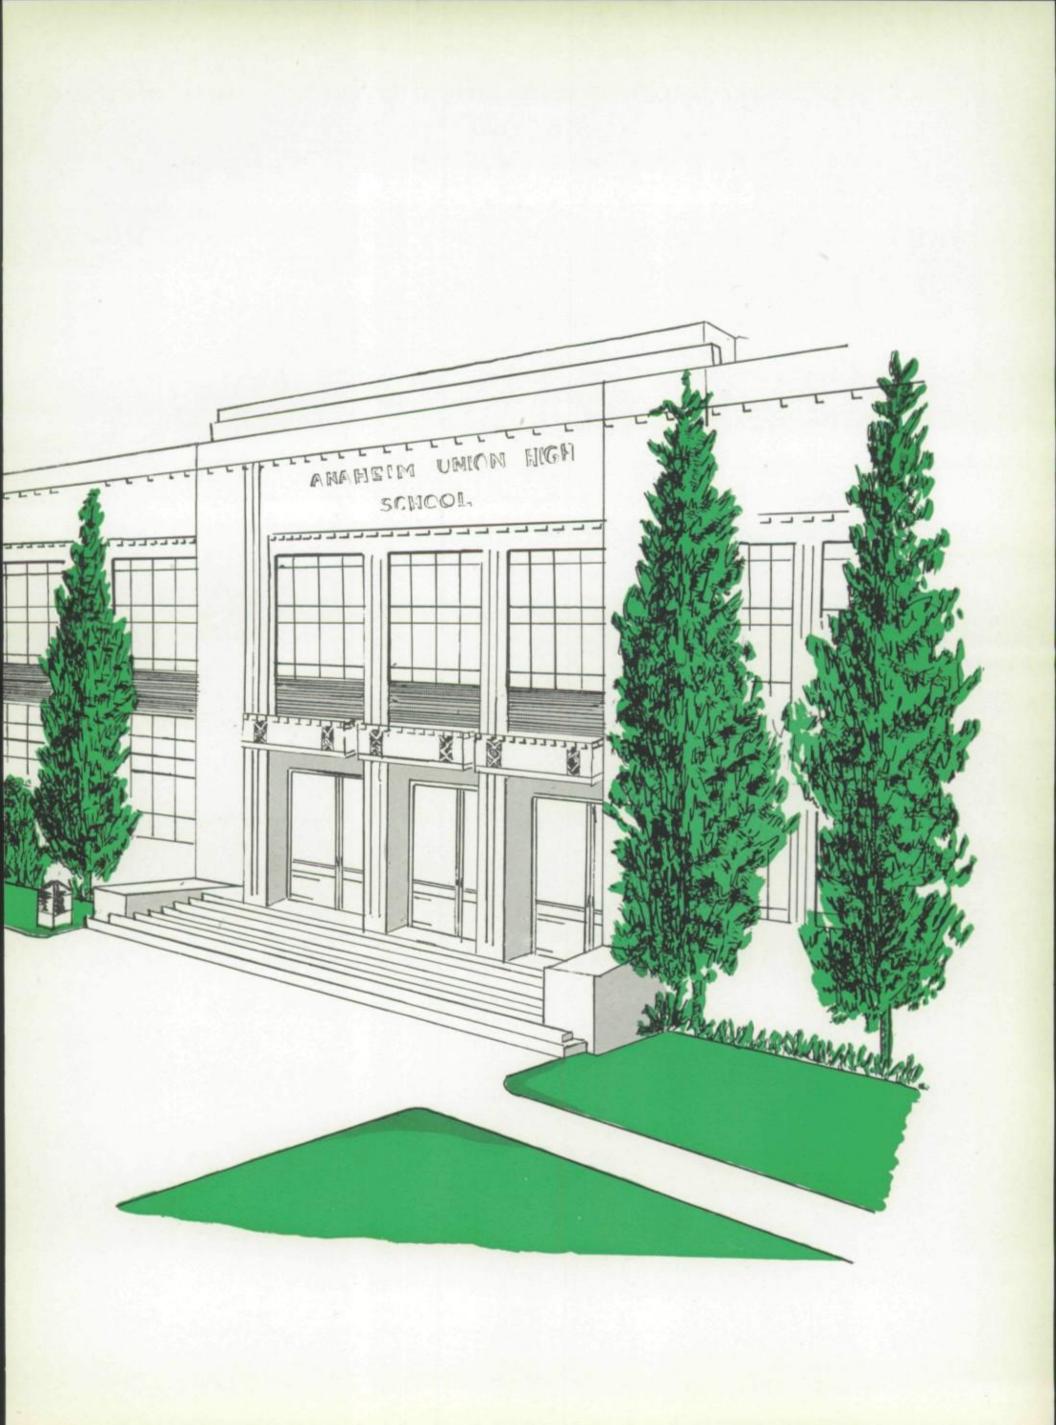

Let's Start at the Front Door . . .

Walk with me up the main steps, around the AUHS emblem embedded in the marble floor, passed the full trophy cases to the main office. There you may find . . .

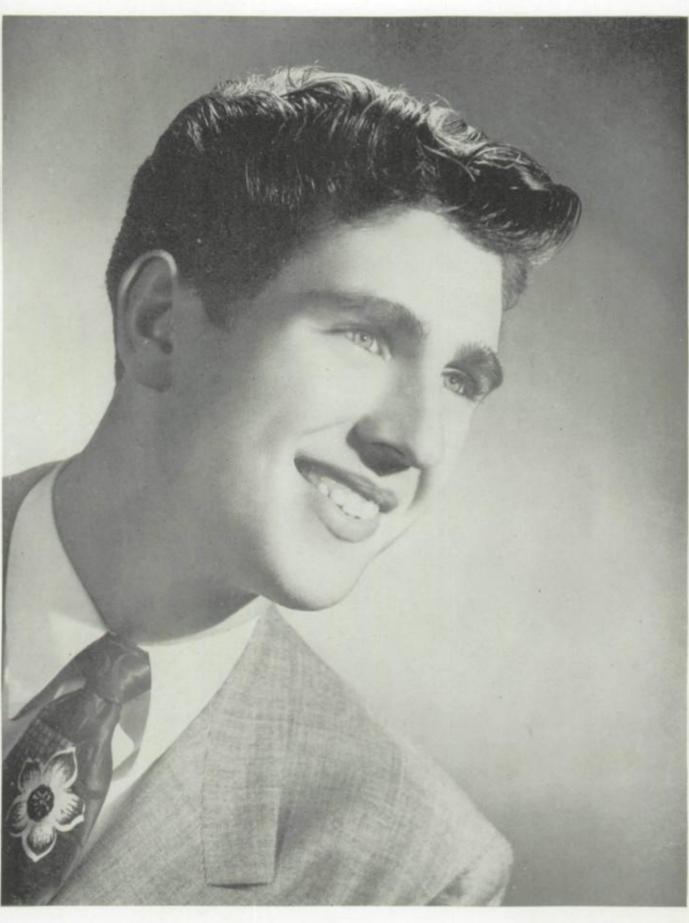

. . . Some of the "wheels" you elected

The Student Council, which makes the laws. . .

Bottom Row (left to right): Carole Sloman, Peggy Kohlenberger, Pat Santi, Linette Blanchard, Jean Cole, Margaret Gordner, Darlene Fitz, Donna Healton, Jymmy Hurley. Second Row: Jim Moore, Robert Bovee, Jerry Nielson, Kenneth Mackay, Carl Starnes. Third Row: Elma Clamp, Dick Rold, Tom Lawler, Paul Salazar, Tom Brown, Bob Santibanez, Sam Okamoto. Top Row, Fernando Ramos, Jerry Boren, Leonard Weaver, Jack Conklin, Dean Stokes, Chuck Bell, Ronald Legg, Benny Mattox.

These were the student law-givers. Led by President Elma Clamp and supervised by Mason Henry, the group met monthly. Members were elected by student vote from social studies classes. Big problem of 1950-'51 was the revamping of the constitution.

Filing demerits and personally dealing with student law breakers kept the Student Court a busy place throughout the year. Chosen by the student commission, they convened regularly during third period. Rel Schmitt presided over the group.

Now on into the Administration offices

MRS. LOIS WHITTINGTON was Vice-Principal and Dean of Girls

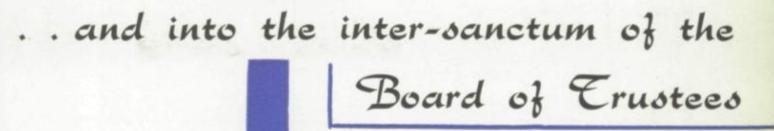

CLYDE NICKLE, assistant superintendent, directed school business office.

FRANK KELLOGG, Dean of Boys and Vice-Principal, dealt with student citizenship, taught physics, supervised the student court and advised the Colonist Club and Toastmasters.

E. M. CONE

A. H. SHIPKEY

PAUL H. DEMAREE, PRINCIPAL AND DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT

Now meet the representatives of all Connies . .

Shelley Smith, President; Jerre Locke, Vice-President; Joyce Enloe, Secretary; Phoebe Merriman, Treasurer.

The Girls' League, composed of all the girls of AUHS, sponsored assemblies, other activities. Above, girls watch motion picture.

... and of all Clems

Education and entertainment was offered in Colonist club regular assemblies. This group watches a motion picture.

Automatic membership in the Colonist club is awarded all boys of Anaheim high. Functioning under direction of L. Frank Kellogg, the organization worked at providing educational diversion for male members of the campus.

. . gave the Red Cross new importance

These important people handled maintenance

LOUIS HAMANN, Bookstore Manager

. . and the Business office

Mrs. FRIEDA GAY, secretary, presided over school switchboard, handled announcements over the loudspeaker.

General school records were under direction of secretary Mrs.

JUNE MACKEY.

Mrs. LUCILLE DIERST, secretary to the superintendent, was new to AUHS this year; handled business for Mr. Demaree.

Mrs. ELSIE BROOKS worked at keeping student finances straight; Mrs. DOROTHY PECK, at general accounting. Both were to be found in the school business office.

Now J'd Like to Have You See Some of

These are the familiar everyday sights . . . the most often recalled and longest remembered . . . your teachers and classrooms.

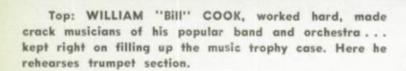

My Best Personal Snapshots

First, a long walk to the Music building

Center: Miss GANIA DEMAREE, vocal music teacher, worked equally hard, supplied spectacular vocal groups for any and all occasions. Here she directs Girls Glee.

Bottom: Miss RUTH SWANSON, returned to AUHS this year after a short absence...resumed her capable teaching of instrumental and vocal techniques. She is shown here with piano student Charles Morris.

. . . and a short visit to the

Science Department

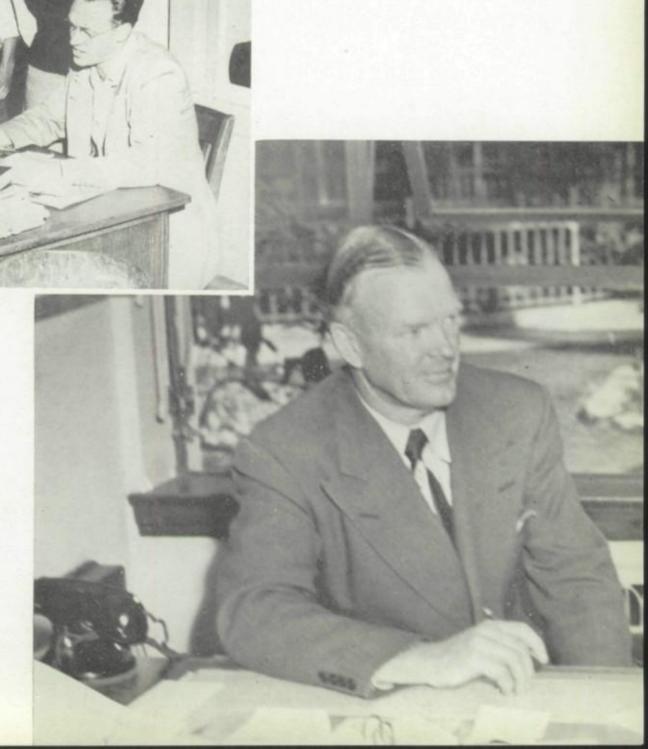

GEORGE HEDSTROM, veteran chemistry teacher, flavored his courses with music, bright ties, and apples at Christmas time. He taught chemistry, general and senior math.

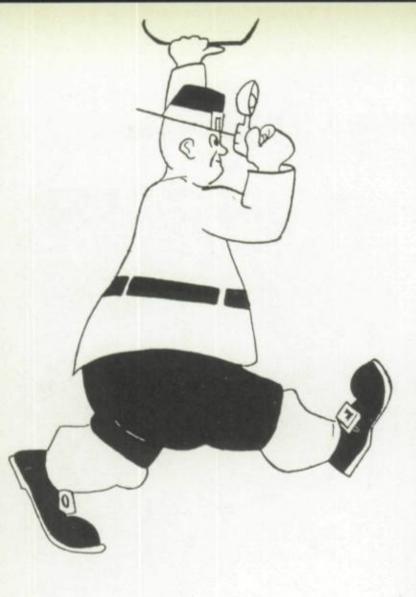

(Above)

Field trips, Bible club sponsorship, and general science were diversified specialties of KEMUEL ANDERSON, science teacher. He taught biology and advised Lambda Sigma.

(Lower Right)

FRANK KELLOGG, brisk and businesslike Dean of Boys, taught physics. He also advised the Student Court, sponsored Toastmasters.

Next a quick trip through Photography, Dournalism, and Dramatics classes . . .

ROBERT ROUTH, photography instructor, did business among enlargers, chemicals and classrooms. Witty and bustling, he taught Practical English classes too. Here he checks print for students.

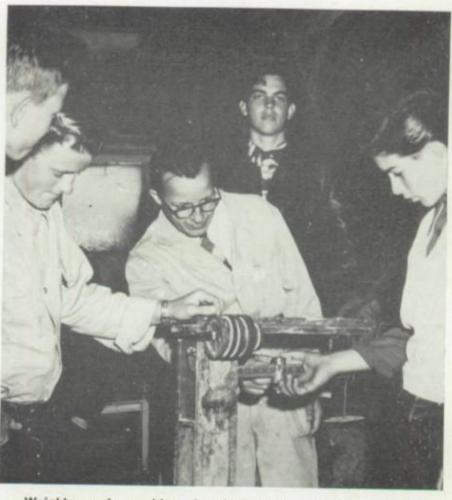

Opening night "jitters", exchange assemblies, and speech contest kept LOUISE HITT, drama teacher, running this year.

... and on out to the Ag Department

Beaming AVON CARLSON, ag teacher, checks the work of Richard Mitobe and Joe Felkner. Future Farmer projects, livestock fair entries, and a myriad of other details kept both he and Mr. Hanson active.

... and back past Art ...

Miss VIRGINIA OAKLEY, art teacher, supervised preparation of decorative materials for every occasion. She also taught craft classes.

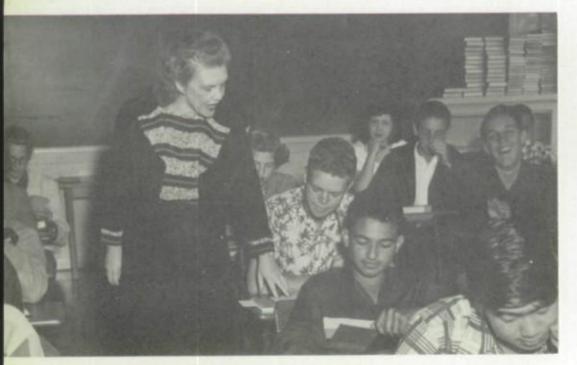

Up through English and Language classes.

Polishing up English III and IV students for college English tests was a specialty of Mrs. ETHEL CAVERLY, head of the English department and usherette advisor. Here she checks class work.

Supplies come out of the closet for the freshmen of Mrs. JESSIE SEWARD'S English class. Cheerful and friendly, she taught English I.

Miss DORA GENE GOLDER, English II teacher, clarifies an assignment for Gary Knox. Miss Golder also advised the Riding Club.

Presiding over her class is Miss GENEVIEVE BENNETT, English teacher. She also taught Latin, advised Latin club.

Miss VIRGINIA HUFF, witty and "muy inteligente", taught Spanish and counselled sophomores. Here Bill Goodman shows her class the location of Baja California.

. . and a quick trip through the Study Hall

Popular WILLIAM HUNSTOCK taught freshman and senior English . . . found time to coach championship basketball and football teams. Here he lectures, Don Goff listens.

Miss ESTHER LITTON, Spanish teacher, quietly and competently managed study hall. Here she writes an assignment on the board.

Biggest class in school, the mammoth study hall, was presided over by Mrs. MARY HEINLEIN. Brisk, efficient Mrs. Heinlein also served as a stubstitute teacher. Here she works in the library.

Top: Sharing the chores of study hall management was Miss MINNIE SPICER. Watchful and authoritive, she also taught general math.

Lower: Miss REBA BROWN, cordial commander-in-chief of the library, was always ready to aid students in reference hunts, or to encourage reading appreciation. Here she talks with student librarian Donna Sangster.

Clattering typewriters bring us to Commercial classe

PHILIP ENGEBRETSON, business teacher, taught Typing I and II. Well-liked, convivial, he also served as FBLA advisor. Here he chats with Russell Noe.

Business English, bookkeeping, general business science, and secretarial pracice were all taught by RALPH WINES, business instructor. Shown here with Marilyn Cordill and Bob Troutman, soft-spoken Mr. Wines also taught Typing I.

Miss KATHLEEN MCFAUL, commerce instructor, shows Don Swenson and Dick Bodine operation of business mechinery. She taught Shorthand I and II, accounting, bookkeeping, secretarial practice, also advised the Commercial Club.

... Sh-sss-sh--people working-- Math Classes

Overseeing assignments is Miss MARJORIE PIBEL, Algebra teacher. She also taught General Math and served as an advisor for the Future Teachers Club.

Miss VELDA BARNES, geometry teacher, listens to Lee Webb explain a problem at the board. She also advised the Girls' League.

Straightening out a problem for Carmen Lopez is General Math teacher CHESTER SHIRK. He also counselled, served as junior class advisor.

Social Studies

WILLIAM RICKEL was kept busy teaching senior problems classes. Shown here with student employee Jane Richards, he was also chief test supervisor, senior class advisor.

Brilliant, understanding, CHARLES RINEHART taught senior problems. Always ready with extra advice for aspiring seniors, he headed the social studies department. Here he locates Korea for Pete Fort.

Social Living instructor RALPH KINGSBURY also served as counselor. Here he lectures a class of sophomores.

WELDON BRAMLETT, freshman orientation teacher, is shown instructing a class. He also served as a counselor for sophomores.

. . we find the Social Studies classes

FRED JETER instructed U. S. History students, counselled. Here he discusses grades with Glenn Kaminsky.

Remen

Salt Lake City is located for a U. S. History class by tall, affiable OSBORNE WHEELER. President of the faculty club, he also counselled, taught elementary algebra.

G. C. BEALE, new to the Anaheim campus this year, instructed U. S. History classes and coached JV baseball. Here he grades class papers.

Neatly-dressed MASON HENRY taught social living classes, served as a counselor. He also acted as chief advisor for the sophomore class. He is seen checking over student work.

Pert, attractive MAXINE DU COTY taught social living, counselled.

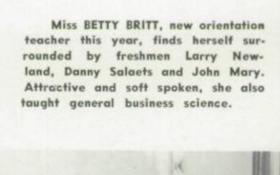

Here she talks with Pat Farmer.

Orientation instructor FAYE SCHULZ counselled, advised freshman class. Here she discusses a problem with Lillian Najera.

Smells of cooking foods draw us to Home Ec.

Mrs. BARBARA WALKER, foods teacher, will be remembered for her cheerful disposition, FHA sponsorship, and culinary tips. Here she shows Myra Harroun and Ramona Schley the trick of canning pears.

Miss NEVA SOLT, sewing teacher, helps Marion Simmons, lay out a dress pattern. Quiet and meticulous, she taught craftsmanship in dress making, sponsored the Red Cross Council.

Real interest is shown by Joella Weisman, and Carol Sloman as Mrs. EVANGELINE DAVIS, sewing teacher, demonstrates how dresses are shortened. New to the campus this year, she also taught home living and home math.

Standing before a lathe, RICHARD F. RYAN, woodshop instructor, shows Alvin Jenkins tricks of wood turning. Hard working and active, Mr. Ryan advised the Colonist Knights.

CLAUDE BOOTH, veteran shop instructor, forcefully and capably taught machine shop and Mechanical Arts. Here he shows Verne Granere operation of machine.

Mechanical drawing was well taught by HARRY L. BURDEN. Well liked and unassuming, he also taught Mechanical Arts.

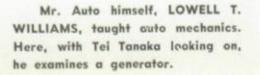

Radie and electricity classes were taught by intelligent, well-dressed JAMES CARPENTER. He also taught general math classes.

DONALD W. BLUCKER, shop instructor, taught wood shop and shop math. Young and casual, he answered to the name of "Woody Woodshop."

Last but not least, the Boys' . .

Short, muscular JOHN WALLIN instructed freshman, sophomore boys' physical education, also football, baseball. Here he takes time out from refereeing a game.

Junior and senior boys' gym was taught by warm-tempered, outspoken SAM KEITH. He also coached football, basketball, and track. Here he demonstrates a few points to basketballers Leonard Kolb, John Steinborn, and John Cyprien.

Teaching driver education and cadets were the main concerns of Captain WILLIAM HICKS, who also served as rifle team coach and Dee football coach. Here he talks with Lyle Bass.

. . and Girls' Gym classes.

JO DERIGO efficiently headed the girls' gym department, taught junior, senior gym classes. She also coached senior G.A.A. girls.

Lower Left: Smiling, auburn-haired ELIZABETH WEBB cared for the health of Connies and Clems. Here she discusses a problem with Rose Marie Cram.

Now the Long Awaited Look at Yourselves.

Here are your friends ... new ones and old ones ... the friends you will never quite forget ... your fellow students.

Walk with Me Now Out Toward the Sports! I never missed a game and I'm proud that with my help most of our teams did well this year. Let's review again the picture record of sports for 1950-51...

School Athletic Fields.

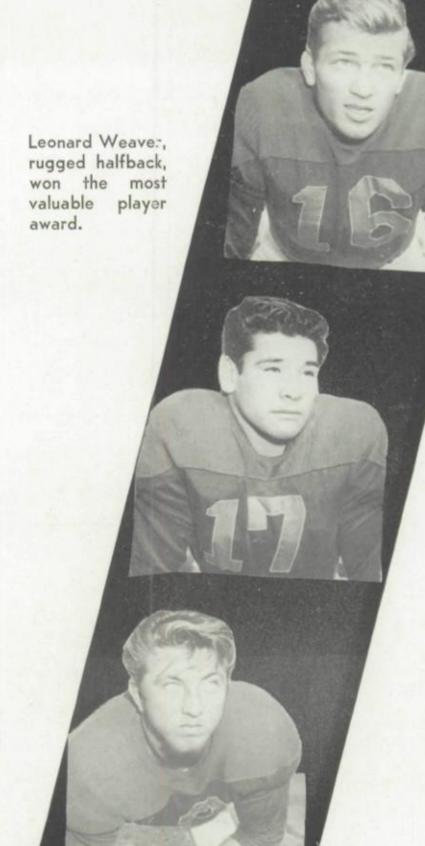

We'll Meet the Football Coaches

VARSITY COACH CLAIRE VAN HOOREBEKE, in his first season at AUHS, lead his gridders to one of the most successful years.

JOHN WALLIN, veteran assistant mentor, coached the Colonist line.

and Some of Eop Players

Augie Huesca, fleet halfback, was 1950 backfield captain.

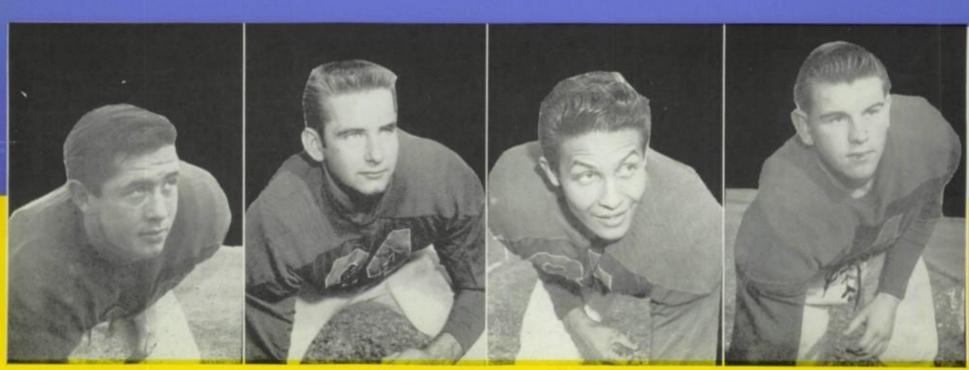

Gene Geselle, fierce - charging varsity center, served as the line captain.

Halfback Leonard Weaver is tackled after a long gain during the Bell Gardens game.

Ewo pre-season, away-from-home games saw the Colonists ramble rough shod over Bell Gardens by a 25-0 count and over Citrus, 24-0.

LYLE BASS

JOE HOFFMAN

DICK ALVARADO

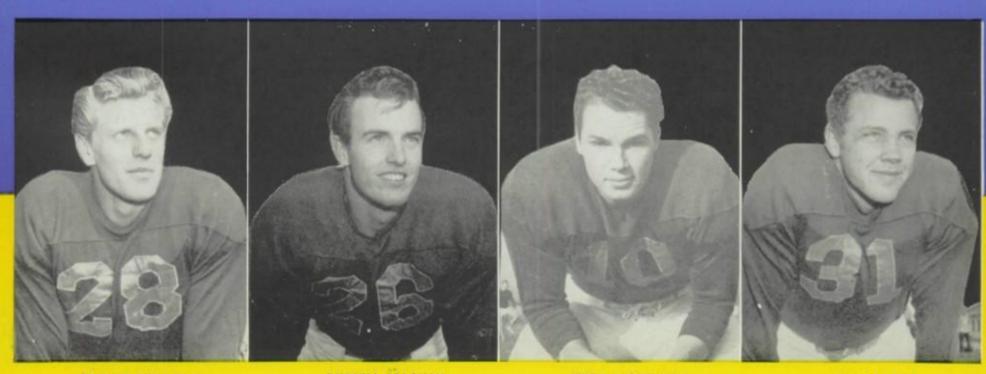

GLENN KAMINSKY

Lee Webb, fleet Colonist end, snags a pass during the Covina game. He was brought down on the Colt's 2 yard line.

Covina's rampaging Colts then dumped the high flying Colonists, 25-6, in Ana heim's first home game at LaPalma park.

The Sunset League got under way with the Colonists chalking up a decisive 26-0 victory over Huntington Beach on the Oiler field. The following week, however, the title-bound Fullerton Indians edged a fired up Anaheim team, 19-12.

A Santa Ana ball carrier is smothered for a loss by most of the Anaheim team, including Weaver, Webber, Geselle, Templeton, John Herrera, Kaminsky, Ed Herrera, Steinborn and Lechuga.

A Newport Harbor game proved the Colonist's low point as the Sailors drubbed Anaheim 35-13. A week later the Anaheim team in part avenged the loss by trouncing Santa Ana's Saints, 36-0, in a home game.

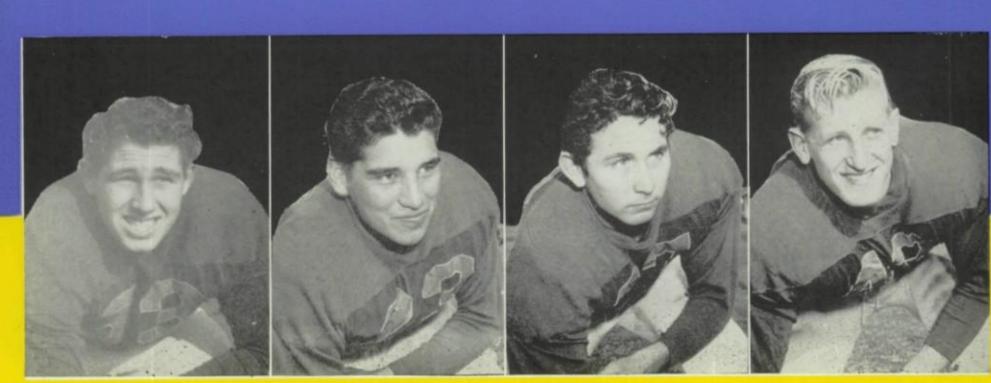

Jim Roberts, Colonist fullback, shakes off a tackler, with help from blocker Jim Holve, in the Orange game.

Windup of the '50 season saw Anaheim win over Orange, 26-19, on the Panther field. Season record: 5 wins and 3 losses. Third place in the Sunset league.

Meet the Bees

Bee halfback Aaron Peralta grinds out a long gain during the Fullerton game. Dick Shield blocks while Phil Taylor and Mike Patin run interference.

BEE COACH SAM KEITH, assisted by WILLIAM HUNSTOCK, guided the Anaheim Bee squad to 4 wins, 3 losses and one tie—good enough for a league championship.

Lineman MIKE PATIN worked as line captain.

Swift, rugged AARON PERALTA acted as

Putting up an equal fight throughout the season, the Newport Sailors, were tied for co-championship with the Colonists as the curtain was closed on the '51 season.

Ron Falkner's try for two points backfires. Dennis Denny moves in for rebound during Newport game.

Ira Webber trys for two points against Santa Ana. Ron Falkner is seen moving in on play.

Although the Saints defeated the Colonists once, Anaheim came back in the second round to knock them out of the Sunset League race.

For the second year straight, Anaheim's cagers captured the Sunset League Championship, sharing the honors with Newport Harbor. Being counted out of the running at the halfway mark, having lost two and only enjoying three wins, they made a remarkable comeback to tie up the standings.

In every league game, at least one Colonist cager had to ride the bench because of illness. Even with just one of the original starting five out, the team was to suffer considerably.

Besides tieing of the league championship, the mighty Colonists won the Huntington Beach Tournament, and set a new record of 14 wins without a loss.

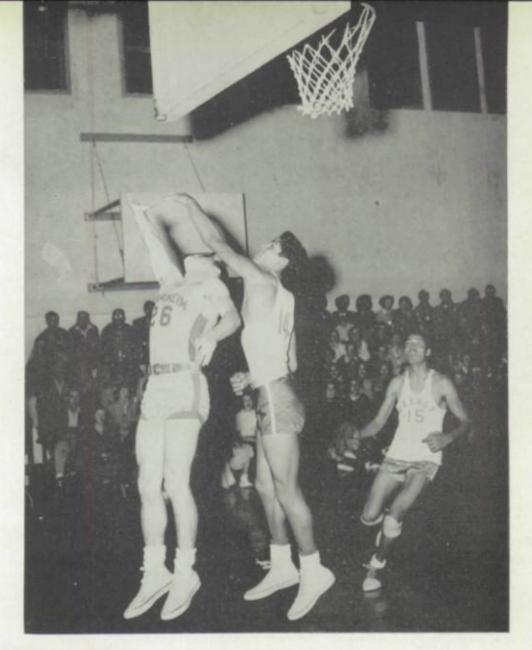

SHELDON WELCH, Guard

JOHN CYPRIEN, Guard

Ira Webber, flashy forward, puts up two for Anaheim against a stunned Orange team.

Continuing their winning streak, the Colonists won both their encounters with the Oilers.

Fullerton Indians, traditional rivals of the Colonists, were defeated in both games by decisive margins.

Dennis Denny and Ron Faulkner wait for rebound against Newport Harbor. This was the game Anaheim had to win to take the championship. Sheldon Welch watches action.

and the Lavee's . . .

Top: Vincent, Lin, Brown, Clark, Murray, Mello, Riveria, Rios, Karcher, Keith. Bottom: Jara, Navarro, Collyer, Jenkins, Byrd, Chambers, Ballard.

On the Diamond . . .

Here we have Eddie Herrera, hard hitting catcher and captain of the Varsity squad.

Bad luck at the beginning of the season dogged this year's varsity squad, but as time went on the group improved considerably.

The Colonists were a little weak at the plate, had accomplished the knack of dropping the ball on infield play, and had only fair pitching. This wasn't true throughout every game, but the Anaheim's defeats always seemed to come in one big inning.

The Colonists finally realized they could also win games and for the rest of the season played some mighty fine ball. The infield was snappy, every outfielder talked it up, and the pitchers all did better.

Benny Mattox, Colonist second bagger, heads for first after tapping a short grounder out toward the infield.

Most of this year's varsity talent was made up of underclassmen and although they did not shine statistically, they should develop into a fine ball club.

This year Coach Wallin played many boys so that, although winning few games, much experience and confidence was built up.

Carl Hatfield, limber AU first sacker, makes the putout on the short single of a Newport horsehider.

Ken Coen, short stop, bunts an easy one toward third base.

Starting out with a "green-as-grass" squad, Coach Beale led Anaheim's JV team through a season that had seen them win seven out of 14 at the three-quarter mark.

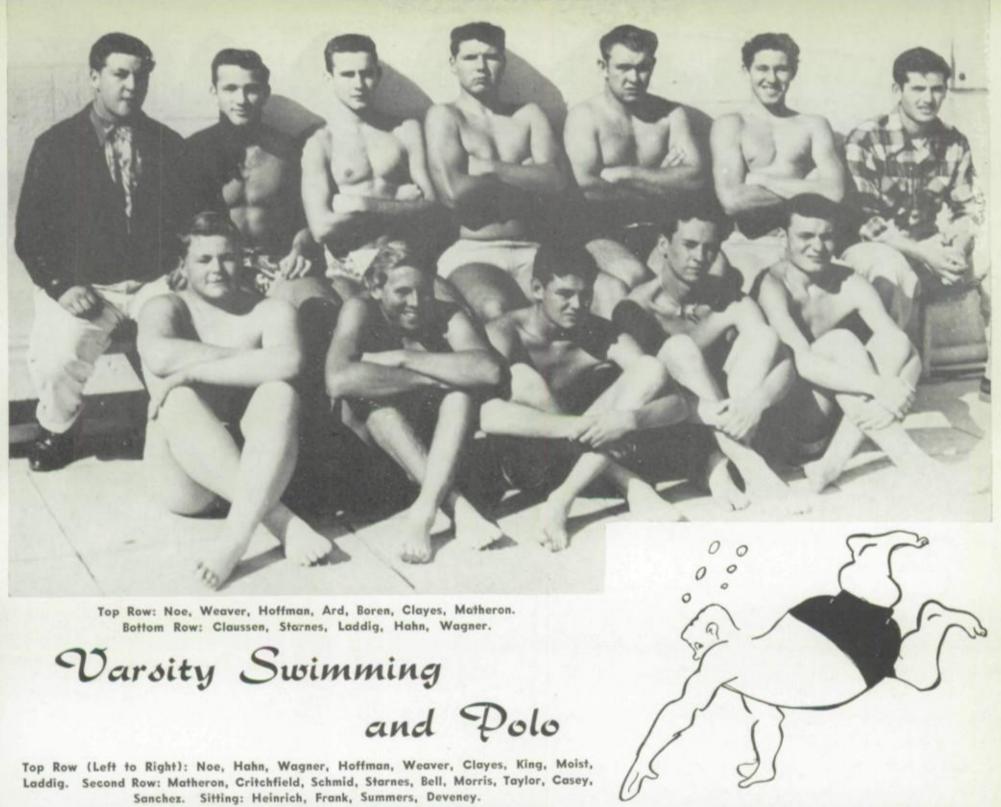

Captained by John Wimber, they did more than serve as just a varsity manpower pool, but played good ball throughout the year.

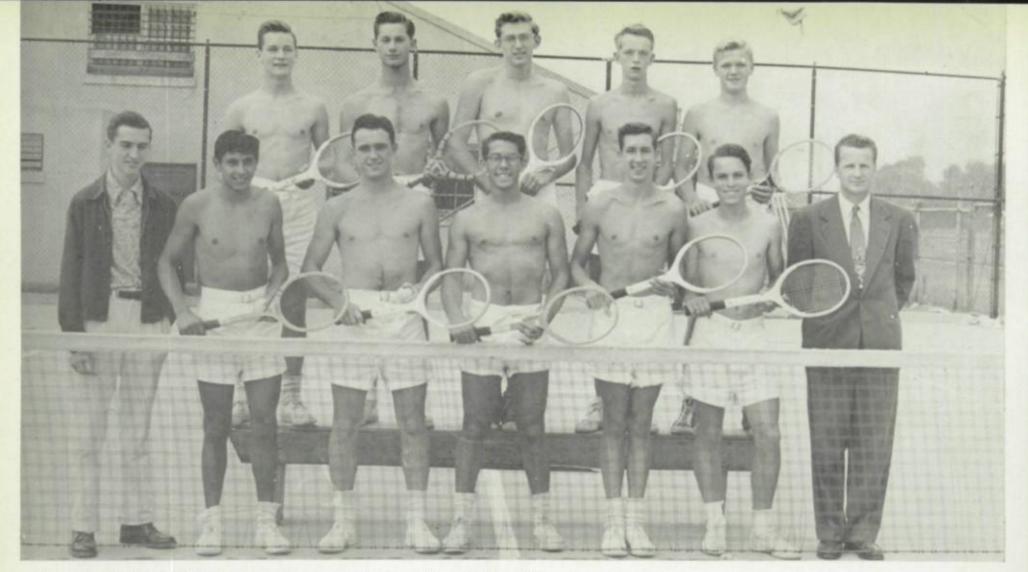

John Wimber, races to beat the throw to first base during the JV's Newport game.

In The Pool . . .

Top Row: Wright, Haster, Jordt, Eberhard, Hessel.

On the Courts . . .

With one game to play, Colonists netters were leading the hotly contested race for league championship, ahead of Santa Ana by a one win margin. Captains were Dan Holden and Don Eberhard.

Because of the early playoffs for the CIF the Colonists had already been picked over the Saints to represent the league because of their more impressive record. They lost thir first match to La Jolla, eventual finalists in CIF.

Bottom Row (Left to Right): E. Gallagher, B. Puckett, B. Clemmer, B. Loustou, D. Roberts, B. Owston, B. Schneider. Second Row: Mgr. J. Albright, P. Taylor, B. Nickelewski, J. Simpson, D. Debzvec, D. Hanson, D. Stokes, F. Cansina, L. Harvell, J. Hilbers, Mr. Cook, R. Hiltscher. Third Row: B. Pickard, H. Hessel, B. Wright, E. Fink, W. Warwick, R. Conklin.

and on the Fairway.

With but one returning letterman, Ray Echols, the varsity golfers ventured forth this spring to defeat many prominent CIF teams. Their overall record for the season was 11 wins to 8 losses. High scorers were Bill Miller, John Cyprien, Ernie Huenemeyer, and Pete Fort.

And We Cannot Forget the Year's

Let's just have fun . . . let's revisit some of the familiar places where we had good times . . . review once more the color and excitement that seasoned the regularity of everyday school lifes . . .

Activities . . .

ROSE MARIE CRAM, editor of the Anoranco for the first semester.

The noisey, cluttered

The advanced journalism class started off the year with a "bang" by putting out a paper the first week of school. During the following weeks of the semester they put out several eight-page papers and a three-color edition at Christmas time.

Mr. Hall, class adviser was also starting them on the yearbook as they worked on the paper. At the end of the semester they completely turned the paper over to the third and fifth period journalism classes and worked only on the Yearbook.

Rose Marie Cram, editor in chief was aided by five able page and advertising editors, Neva Wedin Duncan, coverage editor; Joanne Saylor, feature editor; Dennis Denny, sports editor; Margaret Colbaugh, advertising editor; and Dick Rold, circulation editor.

Mazza, Mary, Colbaugh, Appley, Hooker, Keithley, Korn, Cram, Denny, Faulkner, Wallin, Rold, Galusha, Daly, Tangney, Conklin, Wedin.

Journalism room . . .

After many months of preparation, the Second Semester Anoranco staffs capably took over the school's weekly paper and did an excellent job.

Under editorship of Don Hillary and Annette Ater the third and fifth period classes alternated work of putting out the paper. Howard Hall journalism instructor, points out that from this year's classes, he will have only the best students and journalists in next year's classes.

High stepping, pretty Song Leaders Joan Wood, Barbara Mary and Jeanene Sanders followed the Colonist band, performed at assemblies and games.

Popular, active Elma Clamp, Janet Fukuda and Ronald Legg served as Bee yell leaders; led Colonists at both Bee and Varsity games.

Varsity Yell Leaders Joe Clark, MarElina Burns, and Jim Ball officiated at most varsity games this season.

... the Stage ...

Agile-fingered Vic Ruedy represents some of the home grown talent presented in one of our many talent assemblies.

Helen Weir, attractive songstress, sings a folk song during the Christmas Program.

Two Fullerton J.C. vocalists sing "Indian Love Call" during an assembly previewing their school's operetta.

Friendly counsel was offered to students in class, and parents in private by Dr. Merle Tabor.

Dr. Ralph Eckert, psychologist, gave Connies and Clems expert advice on girl—boy relations.

Leading the grand March at the Military Ball were Jan Pullman and Leonard Weaver.

Nancy Rail and Vic Ruedy enjoying themselves at an after-game dance.

and the Dances

"Around and around we go to the gay notes of the Mexican Shuffle," says this quartet

ohnny Cyprien, Dodie Tangney, Rel Schmitt, and Joan Wood.

the friendship dance Barbara Mary and John Cyprien show off a few of their new steps.

After the Huntington Beach game, Alice Brant and Jim Ball do the Mexican Shuffle.

Lucy Mazza and Dick Trent show the kids how the Lindy is done down at Bal. at the Sock Hop.

Carol Andrade, Dick Krull, Richard Ramella, Mary Cone, John Steinborn, and Charline Walker concentrate on the music, the dance, and the fun they're having.

and the Senior Play

One of the most spectacular senior plays ever given was presented this year by the class of '51 and Miss Louise Hitt, drama coach. Costumes, sets and make-up directed imaginations back to the turn of the century. "Meet Me In St. Louis" will be remembered by students, faculty, and friends for its true-to-life humor and its unforgetable characters.

Top to Bottom: Shelley Smith, Kenny Gross, Joyce Shunk, Helen Weir, Margaret Eickholt, Pat Brooks, Jack Conklin.

"Not In A Thousand Years," a comedy in three acts, was presented by the class of '52 as the Junior Class play. Between little sisters, gossipy neighbors, and his prospective beaus, Junior Conway had trouble getting off to his "dream date" with pretty Jeannie Matthews. Eventually he got his date; while the Junior Class got many compliments on their well presented play.

These people made Your Annual.

Colbaugh, advertising editor; Neva Wedin Duncan, administration editor; Bruce Wallin, art editor; and Dodie Tangney, activities editor.

The final work on the annual didnt' begin until the paper was turned over to the second semester staff early in January, but the staff had been doing little odds and ends since the beginning of the first semester.

THE SAVINGS, LOAN AND BUILDING ASSOCIATION OF ANAHEIM

211 EAST CENTER STREET ANAHEIM, CALIFORNIA Phone 7283

We cordially invite you to open a Saving Account with us.

In 1889, 62 years ago, this organization was formed for the purpose of promoting and encouraging thrift by the people of this community and thereby making funds available to people who desired to build or buy a home in this vicinity.

Since 1889 we have financed thousands of homes and accumulated millions of dollars of savings. To protect those savings, we are members of The Federal Home Loan Bank System and our accounts are insured up to $10,000.00 by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.

Congratulations A. U. H. S.!

KWIKSET welcomes this opportunity to congratulate Anaheim Union High School and the Class of 1951 on the fine quality and spirit of the student body. It is the hope of Kwikset that the class of 1951 and each succeeding class finds in Anaheim a community of increasing opportunity. Our combined efforts can make it so.

Acknowledgments

As this book nears completion, I look back over the many days of work and pleasure we put into it to put it into your hands.

First of all, I want to thank Mr. Howard Hall, patient adviser of the 1951 Colonist, who worked side by side with each of the section editors, Margaret Colbaugh, efficient advertising manager; Rose Marie Cram, clever faculty editor; Bruce Wallin, humorous art editor; Dodie Tangney, pert activities editor; Neva Wedin Duncan, business-like administration editor; Ira Webber, personable sports editor; LaVerne Hooker, hard-working girls' sports editor; and Barbara Mary, willing and able clubs editor. They all did an exceptionally fine job.

My deepest thanks also go to Mr. Lloyd Ross, and Mr. Geo. Lutz, printers, who spent many long hours week after week, to make this annual attainable at this time. And we could not have got along without the students in journalism, photography, and printing classes, who helped us put this book together. Mr. Robert Routh was in charge of photography.

Many thanks to the merchants, whose advertisements and support made this annual possible. We thank, too, the Henderson Trade Bindery and Cover Company, the Peterson Engraving Company, and the General Paper Company for their wonderful cooperation.

Furthermore, I want to express my appreciation to the Art Department, and Miss Virginia Oakley, who made the sectionals possible. Last, but not least, I want to thank Joyce Kerr for her splendid cover creation.

LUCY MAZZA Editor-in-Chief 1951 Colonist
